

If your loved one or family member died from COVID-related reasons, you may be eligible for a reimbursement on your funeral expenses. Go to <https://www.funeralbasics.org/applying-fema-covid-19-funeral-reimbursement/> to learn more about how it works and how to apply.

FEMA started accepting Monday, April 12, 2021. The application requires:

- An official death certificate that attributes the death to COVID-19
- Funeral expense documents
- Proof of funds received from other sources

FEMA is encouraging applicants to contact them directly.
